

ISSUES AND OPPORTUNITIES ELEMENT

Appendix

A-3

BACKGROUND

In November of 2001, the Southwestern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission (SWWRPC) prepared and submitted a Comprehensive Planning Grant Application on behalf of Iowa County and 22 local jurisdictions. In April of 2002, the Comprehensive Planning Grant from the Office of Land Information Services (OLIS) was awarded. The following jurisdictions were included in the grant application:

TOWNS	VILLAGES	CITIES	COUNTY
Arena	Arena	Dodgeville	Iowa
Clyde	Avoca	Mineral Point
Dodgeville	Blanchardville
Eden	Highland
Highland	Hollandale
Linden	Linden
Mifflin	Ridgeway
Mineral Point
Moscow
Pulaski
Ridgeway
Waldwick
Wyoming

As part of the comprehensive planning program, each jurisdiction is required to formally adopt a public participation plan. Each jurisdiction identified above as well as the County, will be adopting their own public participation plan. The public participation plans will share commonalities, but allows each jurisdiction to utilize specific public participation tools that may be best for their particular jurisdiction.

INTENT/PURPOSE

Pursuant to Sec. 66.1001(4)(a), Wisconsin Statutes

“The governing body of local governmental unit shall adopt written procedures that are designed to foster public participation, including open discussion, communication programs, information services, and public meetings for which advance notice has been provided, in every state of the preparation of a comprehensive plan. The written procedures shall be provide for wide distribution of proposed, alternative or amended elements of a comprehensive plan and shall provide an opportunity for written comments on the plan to be submitted by members of the public to the governing body and for the governing body to respond to such written comments.”

ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES

Public participation efforts will be a combined effort between the local jurisdictions, SWWRPC, and UW-Extension. SWWRPC will be focusing on public participation efforts that serve the entire county as well as the cluster groups that have been established as part of the Iowa County Comprehensive Planning Process. For example, SWWRPC will be coordinating and distributing the county-wide survey, press releases and meeting notices for the cluster groups, holding county wide open houses, cluster group visioning sessions, etc. Local jurisdictions will be responsible for coordinating specific efforts on their individual local level. For example, each local jurisdiction is responsible for generating and posting local plan commission notices, posting cluster meeting notices, posting and conducting of at least one public hearing, etc.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR INVOLVEMENT

The table below outlines a number of ways the public can be involved in the Town of Eden’s comprehensive planning process*.

	PUBLIC AWARENESS	PUBLIC EDUCATION (Increasing)	PUBLIC INPUT Level of Involvement)	PUBLIC INTERACTION	PUBLIC PARTNERSHIP
PURPOSE	To increase the overall awareness of the comprehensive planning process.	To provide the public with information to assist in understanding the problems, alternatives, and solutions.	To obtain feedback on issues, alternatives, and/or decisions.	To work directly with the public to ensure that concerns are consistently understood and considered.	To place decision making in the hands of the public.
METHODS OF INVOLVEMENT	1. Direct Mail The Plan Commission will mail a planning newsletter to all landowners and residents of Eden Township every six months beginning (blank) until the plan is complete. These mailings will be well designed in order to encourage high readership; they will inform residents and landowners about the commission’s work on the plan and invite them to participate in the process at meetings and by direct communication. 2. Meeting Notices The Plan Commission will post meeting notices at the municipal building, the Cobb Food Shop, and the township recycling center. 3. Informative Articles The Plan Commission will submit informative articles about the work of the plan commission to the Dodgeville Chronicle, inviting comment from residents and landowners.	To provide the public with information to assist in understanding the problems, alternatives, and solutions. 1. Displays / Exhibits The Plan Commission will display on the township recycling center notice board those materials it believes are pertinent to the issues it is considering. Similarly appropriate displays and exhibits will be available to residents inside the municipal building, especially at election times. 2. Public Education &amp; Information Meetings The Plan Commission will be holding public education meetings as need at the township municipal building.	To obtain feedback on issues, alternatives, and/or decisions. 1. Public Hearing The Plan Commission will hold a public hearing for the purpose of presenting a plan proposal and getting feedback from the residents and landowners on it. (Note: A public hearing is the minimal requirement for public participation under the Wisconsin “Smart Growth” Law.)	To work directly with the public to ensure that concerns are consistently understood and considered.	To place decision making in the hands of the public.

*Note: The Town of Eden reserves the right to modify the steps above and to utilize additional steps, means, and/or methods in order to gain additional public participation or understanding throughout the comprehensive planning process.
